

National Institute of Open Schooling
Secondary Course- Social Science
Lesson 16: Fundamental Rights and Fundamental Duties
Worksheet – 16

- Q.1 Indian constitution has given some fundamental Rights and has also mentioned some duties for the people of India. Write the differences between Rights and Duties.
- Q.2 The constitution has mentioned six fundamental rights for the People of India. Prepare a list of the given rights.
- Q.3 Every Indian should get an equal chance in every aspect of life. In reference to the statement write down the meaning and provision of Right to Equality.
- Q.4 "Right to freedom has given the individual liberty, life and personal liberty to every Indian" in light to the statement please elaborate the Right to Freedom.
- Q.5 "India is a secular country." Explain the Right to freedom of religion.
- Q.6 Right to Education has provided the opportunity to all the children to learn and get educated. In reference to the statement explain the Right to Education and its importance for the society
- Q.7 Duty is something that someone is expected or required to do. Explain the meaning and importance of Fundamental duties.
- Q.8 "Human Trafficking is an illegal trade and an offence." In light of the statement explain the Right against Exploitation.
- Q.9 Right to Constitutional Remedies is the most important fundamental Right. Explain the importance of the given right.
- Q.10 Indian constitution has mentioned the Fundamental duties for the people, list down the importance of the duties in context to the development of our society.