

National Institute of Open Schooling
Secondary Course - Social Science
Lesson 27: Peace and Security
Worksheet – 27

1. Peace is having many versions like local peace, social peace, refer to the statement and describe peace in your own words.
2. The violent activities in any area are threats to the society, if yes, write down your views to create and maintain harmony in society.
3. “Peace and security are inseparable.” Do you agree with the statement write your views in your words?
4. We find a difference between Traditional and New understandings of Peace and Security, write down the meaning and difference between both.
5. In any democratic country the peace and security is important for its development, write your views in this regard with suitable examples.
6. The geographical position of India and its emergence as a global power makes it vulnerable to external threats, please refer to the statement and write down your views in your own words.
7. The Constitution mentions peace and security as an important factor for development, write down the provisions made by the framers of the constitution for peace and security.
8. India has adopted a multi-pronged approach and methods to ensure peace and security, write down your opinion in your own words.
9. Terrorism is one of the greatest threats to peace and security for any country, write down the problems and solutions to control and terminate it permanently.
10. Government of India has been employing strategies and methods to deal with terrorism, insurgency, and Naxalite movement, write down the actions taken by the government and explain it in your own words.