

National Institute of Open Schooling
Secondary Course : Business Studies
Lesson 5 : Transport Services
Worksheet - 5

1. Movement of goods and persons is very important in business. In the light of this statement explain transport as an auxiliary to trade.
2. Transport removes the distance barrier and makes goods readily available at different places. Why do you feel transport is important to business?
3. Describe the various modes of transport and enlist their characteristics.
4. Raman has recently started a business with perishable goods. Which mode of transport would you suggest him and why?
5. Sujata is in business of heavy goods. She wants to expand her business and supply goods to different parts of the country. Suggest her the most suitable mode of transport mentioning its advantages and limitations.
6. Renu visited Solang valley of Manali hill station for a vacation and enjoyed the ropeway journey. What do you think are the major characteristics of ropeway transport?
7. Which is the costliest mode of transport according to you? Mention its advantages and limitations.
8. According to you, which is the fastest mode of transport? Write a short note on it.
9. Ratna has been assigned a project to supply water to residential and commercial areas in large quantities. Which is the most convenient mode of transportation for this? Mention one limitation of the same.
10. Write a short note on water transport describing its two types.