

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course : History
Lesson 11: Emergence of Regional States in India:12th to 18th Century
Worksheet-11

1. Identify the primary sources or documents of that time that give us information about the regional states.
2. List any four characteristics of Regionalism in India.
3. “With the death of Feroz Shah Tughlaq in 1338, the decline of the Sultanate began”. Examine.
4. Some scholars call ZainulAbidin as the Akbar of Kashmir. Examine.
5. Rajtarangani written by Kalhana is considered to be the best and most authentic work of its kind. Examine.
6. List the name of Regional States with their rulers that emerged during 12th to 18th century in India.
7. Explain the army and military organisations of the Vijayanagar Empire.
8. Explain amara- nayaka system.
9. Explain the reasons for the conflict between the Bahamani and Vijayanagar Empire.
10. List some famous monuments built by Bahamani and Vijayanagar rulers.