National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course: Library and Information Science
Lesson 8: Electronic Resources
Worksheet-8

1. Elaborate and discuss the various types of e- resources found in a library and their usage.

2. 21st Century Library caters for "more e- resources than print resources", express your views on the statement.

3. E-resources have certain inherent characteristic features which offer convenience to the users, support the statement.

4. As a library head of a school, how will you manage the e- resources in library?

5. You have been appointed as a master trainer to train newly inducted library staff on 'how do citations and abstracts assist researchers?' Prepare a note on it.

6. During this period of Covid pandemic many publishers are providing free e- books and e-magazines to their readers, access any one of them and share the review of the material accessed in 800 words.

7. Post Covid-19, what would be the perceptible overall changes in the functioning of existing libraries, your views on it, in 500 words.

8. Libraries need to conduct user education programmes in order to teach the users how to use e-resources and thus promote and enhance the use of e- resources among the users. Support the statement.

9. You have the option of reading a book of your choice in either electronic or printed form, which one would you prefer and why?

10. Visit the website of NIOS or any educational institute, access an e- report and prepare a summary of it.