

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course: Military Studies
Lesson 9: Maritime Security
Worksheet – 9

“Nation states give a lot of importance to securing the sea lanes of communication to protect their economy, borders, protect trade routes and also to show their strength”. Enumerate

1. Compare and contrast the threats on land borders, seas, and oceans?
2. Describe the meaning of the following terms:-
  - a. Internal Water
  - b. Territorial Sea
  - c. Contiguous Zone
4. “Oceans provide enormous economic opportunities”. Justify
5. Enlist the major chokepoints in the Indian Ocean Region?
6. Maritime Security is a combined effort of several ministries departments and agencies. Discuss
7. Name the sea border protection force which is responsible for maritime surveillance. Also, explain its features.
8. Discuss the significant role and meaning of IMO & ISPS?
9. Maritime security is an important theme of military studies. Throw some light on the same with reference to its significance.
10. Explain the methodology adopted by maritime security to tackle the threats.