

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course- Political Science
Lesson 30: United Nations
Worksheet – 30

- Q.1 United Nations is an important international institution, write your views on the importance of the United Nations in your own words.
- Q.2 The United Nations does the importance activities for not only the governments but the people of the world at large, in this regard make the list of the welfare activities of United Nations.
- Q.3 The United Nations has touched every single aspect of our lives, in light to the statement write down the ever-increasing scope of the United Nations activities.
- Q.4 The Charter is the Constitution of the United Nations, write down the features of the charter in your own words.
- Q.5 United Nations and its member states are required to adhere to a set of important guiding principles, make a list of the principles and explain in your words.
- Q.6 The maintenance of international peace and security is a very important purpose of the United Nations, if yes, write down your opinion in this regard.
- Q.7 To promote the goals of peace and cooperation the United Nations has principal organs, in context to the statement please describe the followings :
- a) The economic and social council
  - b) Secretariat
- Q.8 The General Assembly is the central body of United Nations organs, in light to the statement write down about the General Assembly.
- Q.9 The Security Council is the most powerful decision-making body of the United Nations, if yes write down your opinion in your own words.
- Q.10 The International Court of Justice is known as the World Court, in light to the statement write down the functions of the international court of justice.