

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary
Lesson 27A – Career Development
Worksheet-27A

1. Sheetal wants to serve in the military. She comes to you to seek guidance regarding career development for the same prospect. Explain the concept of career development to Sheetal.
2. Read at least two articles from any newspaper that aim on the career development aspect. Based on your understanding, prepare gist of the two articles and explain how the knowledge can be applied in real life.
3. Prepare a list of common sources of information related to career that are available to you. (e.g., job vacancy, educational and professional courses, skill building)
4. Prepare a table depicting the different stages of vocational development in relation to life stages.
5. Elucidate upon the four stages of vocational development and their importance.
6. Identify any one working professional from your surroundings and prepare a report describing different stages of their career.
7. A newspaper has requested you to write a column on “Career Planning”. Write a column describing each and every aspect of career planning and list its benefits.
8. Education is important for everyone as it can help in achieving good career opportunities. Enlist and explain special provisions for career development.
9. Ramanujan is unhappy with his current job role as an administrative clerk as there is no promotion in it. In your opinion, what should Ramanujan do? Justify your answer with appropriate reasons.