

National Institute of Open Schooling
Secondary Course - English
Lesson 6: A Tiger Comes to Town-II
Worksheet – 6

1. Read the extract given below and answer the questions that follow:

I can tame a tiger. After all it's my life that I am risking.'

The Chairman was visibly confused and bewildered. 'In that case you will have to sign an affidavit absolving us from all responsibilities for your life and death.'

- i) Who is 'I' here?
- ii) Do you think he is a cruel person? Why/Why not?
- iii) Pick up a pair of opposites in the extract.

2. The tiger is an endangered animal. There are not too many tigers in the world. Find out the names of two more endangered species in the world and write them down here.

- i) _____
- ii) _____

3. Read the sentences given below. Then rewrite the sentences using contractions.

- i) I am so happy, my dear friend.

- ii) He was the first to reach home, was he not?

- iii) We are going to the park in the evening.

4. The tiger stretched and roared when he woke up. How about you? What do you do when you wake up? Write two things that you would love to do on leisurely mornings when you wake up.

- i) _____
- ii) _____

5. Look at the sentences given below. Underline the mistake (there's one in each line) and write the correct word in the given space.

- i) I covered in fear.

- ii) He ensured her that her fear wasn't real.

- iii) The timed girl finally found courage to speak up.

6. In the story, the tiger’s master knows ten languages including Sanskrit and Japanese. Knowing many languages is indeed an asset! How many languages do you know? Enter your proficiency in a language under the given headings. You may put a dash if you don’t have the mentioned skill in a language. You may even add rows if you know more than three languages!

	Understand	Speak	Read	Write

7. Write down three words/phrases to describe a tiger.

8. NGOs (Non-Governmental organizations) are non-profit citizen-based groups that work for the people. There are many organisations that work for the protection and welfare of animal also. Find out the names of two such organisations and write them here.

i) _____

ii) _____

9. A cat crossing someone’s path is considered unlucky. Have you heard of such superstitions attached to animals/birds? Write down any two that you might have heard of.

i) _____

ii) _____

10. A tiger on the streets is an odd sight indeed! But what about elephants? How do you feel when you see an elephant on the city roads? Write 2-3 lines expressing your opinion about it.

