

National Institute of open schooling
Senior Secondary Course : Business Studies
Lesson 18 : Financial Market
Worksheet – 18

1. The financial market act as a link between groups and is defined as ‘a transmission mechanism between investor’ Share you view point’s related to this statement.
2. Money market does not deal in cash or money. Share your view.
3. Mrs. Rita needs instruments for the business to borrow the funds to meet her short term requirement. Therefore explain all the instruments which will help her for the business unit?
4. Explain how financial institution and corporation normally plays major role in increasing bill market?
5. Explain in your words and give a brief idea about two segments of securing market?
6. Explain by giving examples how capital market is different from money market?
7. Describe a place where existing securities can be bought and sold on regular basis and also mention its characteristic?
8. Find out the popular instruments traded in the market?
9. Ms. Radhika is an investor in the business at stock exchange, therefore, helps her with role played by SEBI in protecting investor’s interest.
10. Mr. X enterprises are a company and Mr. Y is an investor. Explain the importance of stock of exchange from Mr. X and Mr. Y point of view.