

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course : Environmental Science
Lesson 12 : Disasters And Their Management
Worksheet - 12

1. Give reasons why ecological balance is necessary in nature? What will happen if this balance does not occur in nature?
2. The Indian subcontinent is highly prone to natural disasters. Explain with reasons.
3. How is the severity of flood determined? Mention its management procedure in modern times.
4. How can an earthquake become dangerous? Explain.
5. How is a cyclone formed? Mention its after-effects?
6. Natural calamities such as drought severely affect the economy of any country. If yes, give reasons in support of your answer.
7. How can fire cause severe damages in terms of casualties as well as enormous economic loss? Explain.
8. Every year dengue spreads in India. How would you suggest some preventive measures to the people of your locality?
9. Why do we feel the trauma of earthquakes so frequent? Suggest precautionary measures.
10. How will you help the local community to be in the state of preparedness to face any disaster?