

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course- Geography
Lesson 20:Land, Soil and Vegetation Resources in India
Worksheet-20

1. How do the diverse physical features affect the availability of arable land in India? Explain.
2. “Land use is a dynamic process.” In light of the statement describe the changing land use pattern of India.
3. What kind of land problems are faced in different parts of India? Also suggest solutions to these problems.
4. On an outline map of India,mark and label the different soil types in India
5. Describe the different soil types available in India.
6. “Soil erosion is the theft of soil by natural elements.” Describe this statement in the light of soil erosion problems in India.
7. If you are given an opportunity to prepare a plan to conserve soil in your area, what plan would you suggest?
8. On an outline map of India mark and label the distribution of natural vegetation in India.
9. Describe the characteristics and distribution of moist tropical evergreen forest.
10. Explain how the mountain vegetation of Himalayas change with the increase of altitude.