

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course : Geography (316)
Lesson 24: Industrial Development
Worksheet -24

1. What kind of changes you observe from the beginning of modern industry in India to till date?
2. Prepare a flowchart of the classification of Industry.
3. Why cotton textile industry is one of the most important industries in India? Explain the development and distribution of this industry in India.
4. What are decisive factors for localisation of sugar industry?
5. Why we are observing a shifting pattern of sugar industries from north India to peninsular India?
6. Iron and steel industry is the backbone of industrials development. Justify.
7. In spite of less availability of local crude oil why petro-chemical industry is one of the fastest growing industries of India?
8. On the outline map of India mark and label the six major industrial regions.
9. Why industrial self reliance is important? How is it being achieved in India?
10. Examine the impact of economic liberalisation in India.