

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course: Geography
Lesson 6: The Work of Moving Ice, Wind and Sea Waves
Worksheet - 6

1. What is a glacier? Explain its types with suitable examples.
2. Describe the landforms produced by glaciers due to its erosional activities.
3. Explain the moraine with the help of illustrations.
4. Explain the conditions which are essential for deposition by wind.
5. Differentiate between Barchan and Seif dunes.
6. Define loess. Give any 2 examples of loess.
7. Explain the process of formation of a sea cliff.
8. 'Sea arches and sea stacks are inter-related'. Justify with the help of a diagram.
9. How are lagoons formed? Give any 2 examples of lagoons from India.
10. What kind of topographical feature are created by depositional work of sea waves? Explain.