

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course : History
Lesson 23: World War-1 and the Russian Revolution
Worksheet - 23

1. List the factors that make World War-I different from previous wars in History.
2. Examine the factors which caused the war in 1914, and discuss whether such factors of conflict exist in the world today.
3. The Russian Revolution was inspired by the ideology of socialism. Explain briefly.
4. Identify the impacts of Russian Revolution of 1917 in India.
5. Describe the reasons of World War-I.
6. Why the revolution became possible in the Russian Empire of 1917 and not in any other country. Explain.
7. Examine the consequences of World War- I.
8. Differentiate between Capitalism and Socialism.
9. The workers movement in the Russian Empire was stronger and more political than anywhere else in Europe. Analyse.
10. Describe the stages of the Russian Revolution of 1917.