

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course / Mass Communication
Lesson-1: Introduction to Communication
Worksheet - 1

1. Human beings exchange their ideas to others in various ways. In your opinion how early human beings express their feelings?
2. Communication has important place in our day to day life. Write two examples of communication you used in your home and with friends.
3. Which type of communication you used during conversation with your friend?
4. While you stay at home during Covid-19 lockdown with your family, mention which types of Non-Verbal communication is being used. Elaborate.
5. Which type of Formal and Informal communication you use at school time? Give suitable examples.
6. You must have seen any rally. Which type of communication is used during the rallies? Differentiate between Group and Public communication.
7. Every day you send many picture messages to your friends through mobile. Which type of communication 'Smiley' denotes? Neatly draw two examples.
8. 'Written communication gives words and thoughts permanence'. Considering this statement write down the advantage of Written Communication over Oral Communication.
9. Elaborate Interpersonal Communication in your words and give two suitable examples.
10. You must have seen the Gandhi Ji's three monkeys and their body movements. Mention the type of communication will you use for stopping a taxi by using body movements. Elaborate.