

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course: Mass Communication(335)
Lesson 12 : Radio Programme Production
WORK SHEET -12

1. Illustrate the various qualities of a Radio Program Producer with the help of a diagram.
2. Creativity plays an important role in radio programs List five different qualities of creativity.
3. Read the elements of radio formats carefully and listen to radio programs related to all elements. Share your experience with your family.
4. Develop a script for a radio program, on the topic “Measures to avoid the increasing pollution”.
5. What are the types of microphones? Give a pictorial description of the microphones used in radios.
6. Give a comparative study of unidirectional and bidirectional microphones.
7. Show the different effects of sound with the help of a diagram.
8. Language on radio holds a special significance. Identify five features of language in radio and understand the usefulness of language. Discuss its effects with the family.
9. Understand the various functions of a multi-directional microphone. Discuss it with a sound engineer and collect information.
10. Visit radio studios and share your experiences with your friends.