

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course- Political Science
Lesson 18: Electoral System In India
Worksheet – 18

- Q.1 The Elections enable the adult citizen of the country to participate in process of government formation, explain the statement in your own words.
- Q.2 Election is a complex process, if yes, explain the statement with an example.
- Q.3 The Election Commission has the Power to control and conduct the Elections peacefully, in support to the statement explain the composition of election commission.
- Q.4 The Chief Election Commissioner and other Election Commissioner hold their office for fix tenure, and no one has the power to remove them, In context of the statement write down the tenure and removal system of Chief and other Election Commissioners.
- Q.5 “The prime function of the Election Commission is to conduct free and fair elections.”– Considering the statement, explain the following.
A) The process of delimitation of constituencies
B) Providing the recognition to the Political Parties.
- Q.6 The Symbol plays a significant role for the political parties, in Support to the statement please write the answer with an example.
- Q.7 There is a difference in General, By Election and Mid Election, Write down the difference and also mention the type of elections your state held.
- Q.8 The Election duty officers assist the Election Commission to hold free and fair elections, in reference to the statement answer the followings:
A) Duty of a Returning Officer,
B) Presiding Officers Roles and Responsibilities,
C) Role of a Polling Officer,
- Q.9 The elections in India are re-conducted according to the procedure defined by the law, Define the process in context of the given statement.
- Q.10 Indian Electoral system is having many shortcoming but there is a scope of electoral reforms too, write down the short falls and reforms to restore the electoral process in India.