

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course- Political Science
Lesson 20: Regionalism and Regional Parties
Worksheet – 20

- Q.1 “The Regional Parties works for the betterment and development of a specific area, region, or state”, in light to the given statement write the functions of the Regional Parties.
- Q.2 The term “Regionalism” depicts both negative and positive meanings, write down the positive meaning of regionalism in your words with Examples.
- Q.3 The regional parties sometimes works with the objective to get ‘Autonomy’ for the state, write down the concerns related to the word “Autonomy” and its impact on “nationalism”.
- Q.4 Secession from the union is a dangerous thought, in context to the statement list down the consequences and the importance of the word Unity in context with national development.
- Q.5 Regionalism is not a new concept for the Indian politics. Explain the above statement with example.
- Q.6 The concept of “Single Citizenship” gives us the feel and pride to be a citizen of one nation. Write down your views in favour of the given statement.
- Q.7 The fear of giving primacy to the language of majority has affected the objective of the Regional Parties? If yes Explain the given statement in your own words.
- Q.8 The thought of being constantly neglected by the center has been a major cause of Regionalism. Write down your views on the given statement.
- Q.9 The Regional parties have contributed enough to the Indian politics, in light of the given statement write down the roles of the Regional Parties.
- Q.10 We can remove the Regional Imbalances as it impacts the security and safety of the nation, make a list of the measures that can be taken to remove the imbalances.