

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course-Political Science
Lesson 25: Human Rights
Worksheet-25

- Q.1 Human rights are inherent in human existence; do you agree with the statement? If yes explain.
- Q.2 Human dignity is the essence of human rights; in context to the statement explain the importance of human rights.
- Q.3 The classical category of human rights has been defined to include civil and political rights. If yes, explain the statement in your words.
- Q.4 Fundamental rights are more important to certain rights. In reference to the statement list down the importance of the fundamental rights.
- Q.5 Write down the difference between individual and collective rights.
- Q.6 Solidarity rights is a new concept, and it is important to the growth of humanity. If yes, explain the statement in your words.
- Q.7 All categories of human rights have same features; in context with the statement answer the following:
- A) Human rights are universal, and they treat all humans as same; explain.
 - B) We all have human rights because we are human. Explain the statement and write down the importance of rights for humans.
- Q.8 Human rights has been developed gradually, in a process. In context to the statement explain the major landmarks in the development of human rights.
- Q.9 Indian constitution has understood the importance of rights and it has been included in the Article for betterment of the people of India. In context to the statement write down the human rights features mentioned in the constitution.
- Q.10 Human rights commission has been established to protect the human rights. In context to the statement define the National Human Rights Commission and explain the importance.