

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course- Political Science
Lesson 08: Indian Federal System
Worksheet No. – 08

- Q. In Federal set up there is a two tier Government with well assigned powers and functions, In light to the statement explain the nature of the federal system.
- Q.2 The most important feature of a federation is that its constitution should be a written one, explain the importance and limitations of a written constitution.
- Q.3 The division of powers is an important feature of a federal system, if yes, explain the concept of division of powers.
- Q.4 In a federal system the relation between center and the states should be peaceful and cordial, explain the relationship between both in context with Indian system.
- Q.5 The Sarkaria Commission was appointed to suggest ways and means to improve Centre-State relations, explain the suggestions given by the commission.
- Q.6 India is federal in character and Unitary in spirit? Explain in your words.
- Q.7 The framers of the Constitution have incorporated certain non-federal features in it, if yes, explain the non-federal features of the constitution.
- Q.8 In Indian federal system we find “Supremacy of the Judiciary”, if yes explain in your words.
- Q.9 Indian Constitution is called “Rigid Constitution” Explain the reason with example.
- Q.10 The distribution of financial resources is especially critical in determining the nature of the State’s relationship with the Centre. Explain the given statement in your words.